

Mettawa Open Lands Association

Spring 2014 Forum

"The Undesirables"

(And How to Keep Them Away)

MOLA will host a breakfast forum with Featured Speaker Jay Womack, Director of Ecology and Landscape Architecture at WRD Environmental will enlighten Mettawa residents on: Cause and Effect: What landowners can do to encourage indigenous/desirable wildlife and how inaction can attract pests.

Deer, coyotes, mosquitos, bats, and bees all play a role in the environment. Land management practices can encourage or discourage various species to visit or reside in our community. This talk will be lively and enlightening with time for questions and answers.

Saturday, March 8, 2014 • 9 am to 11 am

Hilton Garden Inn • Mettawa, IL

Continental Breakfast will be served

There is no cost to attend, but a response by 3/5/14 is appreciated to insure adequate seating, food, and beverage. E-mail reservations to larryfalbe@aol.com.
